

Leonardo Academy has a broad public outreach program dedicated to spreading information on sustainability: What it is, The need for increased sustainability and How to take action to increase sustainability.

Key Components of Leonardo Academy's Public Outreach:

Sustainability Outreach to Professional Audiences

- Sustainability Training Program
- Provides training on the many aspects of sustainability

- Sustainability Education Program
- Develops educational materials and supports implementation of k-12 sustainability education

- Sustainability Interns and Fellows Program
- Helping to develop the sustainability leaders of the future

- Participation in Conferences, Symposiums and Workshops
- Leonardo Academy staff members participate in many sustainability Conferences, Symposiums and Workshops

- Leonardo Academy Update Emails
- Monthly Updated Emails on Leonardo Academy Sustainability Work

- Friends of Leonardo Academy
- A quarterly newsletter for all those interested in Leonardo Academy's Sustainability work

Sustainability Outreach to the General Public Audience

- Leonardo Academy's World Green Web Site
- Provides outreach to the general public with information, education, and action opportunities for making the world green.

- Friends of Leonardo Academy
- A quarterly newsletter for all those interested in Leonardo Academy's Sustainability work

For additional information contact Leonardo Academy at:

Email: outreach@leonardoacademy.org

Tel: 608-280-0255