Message From the Pr

In February I was an invited speaker at the International Construction Week (ICW) 2012 held from February 15-16, 2012.

In early March, close to a dozen participants of the National Sustainable Agriculture Standard development project were invited to attend a meeting in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

March was a notable month for our Sustainable Building Services team. We announced the achievement of Leonardo Academy's Sustainable Transportation Program has partnered with the Schneider National to
